

AL Wahab Rice Mills Pvt. Ltd. is a professionally managed organization that specializes in providing comprehensive range of Basmati & Non-Basmati Rice. Established in the year 1998, the company is located in Kamoke, Distt Gujranwala Pakistan. Initially the business was set up in 1990 as Wahab Traders. Since the company has emerged as key player in the domain of Agricultural Industry.

We have wide experience of farming paddy, because we are basically came from farmer background. We are specialist in organic conventional, fair trade rice farming. We growing paddy in our own farms and purchase paddy direct from other farmers.

We appointed qualified, experience persons in QC department. We give maximum benefits of their knowledge and skill to our end user customers. We assures the best of quality. Our facilities are IFS , FSSC 22000, HACCP & ISO certified.

Company drying, husking, processing & parboiling setup with high quality state of the art latest machines imported from different countries.

We give products to our customer over all at low cost, with good quality, with easy availability, we follow the international norms

Total processing capacity 22 tons per hour at present,

Company stock capacity is 50000M/Tons of raw Basmati and non-basmati.

Our strategic location is more useful to export quality basmati any products without any delay. We can procure pure basmati as earlier possible. So that our customers get their products in very fast & high quality.

We take care of our entire business partners because we believe to make relation with them life time.