

Law . Tax

In Germany CMS is one of the leading commercial law firms. More than 600 lawyers, tax advisers and notaries advise SMEs and major corporations throughout Germany on all aspects of national and international commercial law. Our strong teams of experienced specialists from a wide range of legal fields make us a partner you can rely on.

Companies are increasingly seeing digital transformation as an opportunity and reinventing their processes for the digital age. Data and the digitalisation of the economy are particularly key issues across all industries. As an innovative partner with strong digital understanding, CMS is ideally placed to assist and support you with key issues around the digital economy and its legal implications.

Our knowledge and experience are supported by more than 4,500 lawyers and tax advisers in 71 offices worldwide.

More information on CMS and the CMS network, its lawyers, areas of expertise and related topics is available at cms.law.