

Gary E. Anderson

Retired Chairman and CEO, Dow Corning

Director: Chemical Financial, Eastman Chemical

Gary Anderson joined Dow Corning, a diversified company specializing in the development, manufacture and marketing of silicones and related silicon-based products, in 1967 and served in various executive capacities for over 25 years, including Chairman, President and CEO. Mr Anderson retired as Chairman at the end of 2005. He has been a director of Chemical Bank since 2001, serving as the board's first lead independent director from 2006 to 2011. Mr Anderson joined the Eastman Chemical board in 2007 and served as its first lead independent director from 2011 to 2014.